RED CROSS NOTES

There will be a class in muslin work on Tuesday, April 9th, at 9:30 at the Surgical Dressing Shop. All ladies who are interested in taking muslin work home to make are invited.

The Supervisors class in Surgical Dressings finished their work last Friday morning, when they wrote their examination. Every lady finished with honors and is now busy teaching the ladies in the workrooms how to make the dressings which will be needed to fill the April quota.

Mrs. F. C. Penayer has been appointed County Chairman of Surgical Dressings. Mrs. Penayer is thoroughly trained to do this work and has been a very successful chairman of the work at South Haven.

The Surgical Dressing shop opened for work Monday. Twenty-two ladies were present and 294 dressings were made.

Beginning April 8th, the Surgical Dressing shop will be open every afternoon from 1:30 until 5:00 and every evening from 7:00 until 9:00.

The following appointments have been made by the chairman of surgical dressings.

Sec. and Tres., Mrs. Walter Van-Tassell.

Assistants—Mrs. J. C. Maxwell, Mrs. L. K. Woodman, Mrs. Fred Sowle, Mrs. E. B. Longwell.
Inspecting Committee—Mrs. Geo. Longwell Jr., Mrs. Ethel Wheaton, Mrs. Will Longwell, Mrs. F. A. Racette.

Supervisors of Packing—Mrs. Geo. Longwell Jr.,

Muslin Committee—Mrs. B. F. Warner, Chairman; Mrs. David Anderson, Mrs. Harvey Sherman, Mrs. Frank Taylor.

Publicity Committee—Papers, Miss Marian Boess; Church, Mrs. Harvey Cooley; Lodges, Mrs. Elmer Sirrine; Children, Mrs. David Anderson.

Equipment—Mrs. J. Stephenson.

The chairman of the work in Surgical Dressings will wear a blue coif and the assistants will wear the red. The colored coif has no other significance than to distinguish those in charge. The red band on the arm is the reward for passing the course of lessons and the crosses are rewards for hours services in the workroom.

Order your Spraying Lime at once. We have just unloaded a car of Queen Quality hydrated lime.

This was ordered last November and has just arrived. It may be impossible to get more this season.

It is now an acknowledged fact that those who do not spray, cannot raise grapes successfully. On this account there will be an increased demand for lime this season.

Should other Lime dealers in neighboring towns fail to get their lime supply in time for the Sprayers use, this car would last but a short time.

The Wise Man, is buying his materials of all kinds ahead of time. The other type of men who always trust to luck is often times fooled in these strenuous war times.

Take our advice, be one of the Wise Men and secure your lime at once.
